RUBEL-VAESSEN—

A pretty wedding was solemnized Monday morning at the Ambey Catholic church when Miss Blanche May Rubel, of Bradford, Ill., was united in marriage to Frank J. Vaessen, of Sublette. The ring ceremony was used and the couple were attended by a sister and brother of the groom. The bride was attired in a white satin gown, trimmed with georgette crepe and shadow lace and carried white roses. The matron of honor's dress was pink and she carried pink roses. Following the ceremony the wedding party motored to Dixon where dinner was taken and pictures were secured. The bride and groom boarded a train at Dixon for Minneapolis and other cities, their honeymoon to be of two or three weeks duration. The bride's traveling gown was of navy blue poplin with hat and gloves in costume. She is a young lady of many fine attainments, and her husband is one of Lee county's stalwart young men. He is a veteran of the World War, having served in the aerial service. They will make their home on a farm south of Dixon, the property of the groom's father.

BRECHON-PARKER—

Miss Margaret Rose Brechon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Brechon, of South Dixon, became the wife of Walter Parker of this city in a ceremony performed by Rev. C. F. Conley of St. Mary's church, Walton, at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. The nuptial high mass which celebrated the wedding was attended by about forty friends and relatives of the contracting parties, who were attended by Maurice McCune and Miss Adele Brechon, sister of the bride. At 11:30 o'clock a four course wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, where the young couple will make their home until the groom, who holds a fine position at the Universal Oats Co., can find a residence in this city.

Admission, adults 35c, children 7 to 12 20c. Proceeds go to the centenary fund of the Sunday school. Dr. Payne will also bring his sermon-lecture on "Life Among the Mohammedans," Sunday evening, Sept. 12, at 7:30. Admission free. The usual offering.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS FOR EDWARD J. BRUNDAGE

Southern Illinois Republicans will support Attorney General Brundage for re-nomination in the primary September 15th. General Brundage was not much known in this section of the state when he made the race four years ago, but during his tenure of office Republicans of this section have learned to know him and to like him. They recognize in him a man of exceptional ability and like his thorough Republicanism.

In his handling of the affairs of the Attorney General's office he has shown exceptional ability, administered the office in the interests of the people of the state and has made a record of which republicans and a republican party may well be proud. When a public official has made the record in office that General Brundage has made, the republicans of "Egypt" believe in giving him a record vote of endorsement for re-nomination.

This is a bounden duty as well as a privilege for republicans who vote in the primary September 15th. Edward J. Brundage is one of the big republicans of the state, and one of the leaders we must look to for a clean successful leadership of the republican party. There has not been a word of criticism of his record in office during the past four years, and every republican in this county should not only vote for Brundage, but suggest to his republican neighbor that he do likewise.—The Salem Republican.

BRUNDAGE'S RE-ELECTION WILL PROTECT THE STATE

As Attorney General of the State of Illinois, Edward J. Brundage has proven himself fully capable of looking after the duties of that great office. He is entitled to every consideration as a capable and honest official. But above these considerations is the significant fact that Big Bill Thompson is against him. A man can't be for Bill and for the people, in a public office. Brundage chose to represent the people and so the boss of Chicago's great and corrupt political machine is against him. Brundage should be re-nominated and re-elected.—Murphysboro Republican Era.

TELLS OF CAMPAIGN TO RAISE CLEVELAND QUOTA OF REP. FUND

pledged and that the work was still going on with Mr. Protzman directing it and all workers trying to reach the goal of $400,000.
Brings up Form 101
Senator Reed then took the witness through form 101, the campaign plan, which Republican witnesses have said was never issued and which Mr. Blossom said he never had seen. At almost every step in organization described by the plan, Mr. Blossom nodded or expressed assent. He said an executive committee was formed as described in the plan or so members, Michael Gallagher, coal operator, as chairman, and John Sherwin and J. R. Nutt, bankers, and C. A. Otis, broker, as members.
"They were among the most influential and powerful business and professional men in your city as described by this plan for the executive committee," said Senator Reed.
Mr. Blossom said that W. A. Woodford was chairman of the ways and means committee for Cleveland and agreed with Senator Reed that he was described by the language of the form which recommended a "big visioned financial man" for the post. The "prospect list of 3000 names" which form 101 recommended was also identified as existing in Cleveland as was the "cream list" assigned to the executive committee. Mr. Blossom said he had been told by Mr. Protzman that the executive committee had obtained about $28,000 in pledges from this list. Senator Reed brought out that this conversation with Mr. Protzman took place after the committee's subpoena was served on Mr. Blossom.
At one stage of the examination the Missouri senator remarked:
"So it was after a good luncheon, an inspiring speech by Congressman Fees with everybody feeling good that you started out and made the raid."
Clash With Kenyon
Kenyon brought out that he preferred "started the campaign" as a concluding phrase to Senator Reed's suggestion.
"I do not think the witness should be led into the position of using language with which he does not agree," said Chairman Kenyon.
"The witness and I are going along fine," rejoined Senator and laughter. "If you leave me I'll be good natured all day."
Senator Reed and Chairman Kenyon clashed again when the Missouri senator asked Mr. Blossom who suggested this plan you followed, absolutely tallied in almost every respect with this document I have read?
Senator Kenyon cautioned the witness not to answer.
"You have bullied ragged witness," Senator Reed retorted "you have every sort of thing to witness," have asked leading questions. In my years of experience I never saw any one in court and especially not an investigating committee supposed to be seeking all the truth on a witness not to answer a question that manner."
Senator Kenyon withdrew his objections and Mr. Blossom stated either Mr. Protzman or Mr. Wood had outlined the plan to him.

WITH MRS. AHRENS.

The regular meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary of the M. E. church was held with Mrs. H. A. Ahrens Thursday afternoon with 46 men present. The meeting opened with a song, "Jesus Shall Reign." The devotional was in charge of Mrs. Mac Cook. An election of officers was held as follows:
President—Mrs. Fred Hobbs.
Recording Secretary—Miss Lillian Arnold.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Ella Morse.
Treasurer—Mrs. Herbert Scott.

Mrs. Dawson gave a report of the work which showed a greater increase in membership and the finances were greater than last year. The following program was rendered:
Vocal Solo, "I Love You"—Miss Evelyn Street, to which she responded to a duet, "Sleep Baby Sleep," which is arranged by her uncle, Horace West.

A paper was given by Miss Callie Morgan, "A Thousand And One." Solo entitled, "A Perfect Day," rendered by Miss Evelyn Street, Reading of Exempt by Mrs. Robert Anderson. At the close of the program a social hour was enjoyed.

FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS.

A very enjoyable gathering of friends assembled at the home of Fred Huns near Woosung Monday evening on occasion being in honor of John, Mary, Helen and Catherine Nagle who are departing for their respective schools. Dancing and games were indulged in, after which delicious refreshments were served. Social chatting consumed the remainder of the evening which passed merrily till the small hours appeared, after which the guests departed for their homes. Among the young people a happy school year. Among the guests was Miss Kathleen Prindaville of Memphis, Tenn. The success of the affair is due to the clever management of Miss Katherine Tyne and Miss Agnes McGrath.

GNIC AT LOWELL PARK.

A very merry picnic party was held at Lowell Park when the members of Harvey Buzzard's threshing ring with their families met at Lowell Park on Labor Day. Each family bringing with them a well filled basket and during the day ice cream and cake were served. The ball game in which Alken's Colts defeated Misman's Cubs by a score of 19 to 16 with Mr. McCullough as umpire, was well played and proved to be quite exciting.

FAMILY REUNION.

Mrs. Finkler and family and Al Woodyatt and family, of Dixon, were at LaSalle over the week-end, attending a family re-union, where about 35 relatives were gathered. They visited LaSalle, Deer Park and Starved Rock. Among those who attended the gathering were the following from Chicago: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woodyatt, Mrs. Hunt, Miss Emily Finkler and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff. From here there were Mrs. Kilduff, Dr. and Mrs. Olmstead, and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Batchelder.

HERE ARE THE NEW SUITS AND COATS

Such a wealth of smart styles await your inspection and approval. Our collection of Suits take into consideration every occasion. The woollens from which these Suits are developed are lovely and soft, ranging in tone from navy blue to the rich forrest shades and deep brown. Simplicity is the keynote of most of them; others are lavishly trimmed with fur and embroidery. The tailoring is faultless and, of course, the jackets are handsomely silk lined.

The Coats are just as appealing in style. Wrappy lines and fur or embroidery adornment mark a number of these alluring Fall Coats as suitable for more "Dress Up" occasions, while the sturdy models of Tweed and other serviceable fabrics have a "knockabout" purpose. Do come and see this new advance showing while the assortments are at the height of completeness. You will enjoy seeing these new things and trying them on and you need not feel obliged to buy.

THE BROKEN CONTRACT

Anthracite coal miners who are members of the mine workers' union propose to believe in collective bargaining.
Often they have soundly denounced and rightly so—coal operators refusing to arbitrate labor demands. They have been unanimous in protest when an operator failed to live up to the exact word of a contract signed by operators and labor union officials.

"Now thousands of these miners are striking. A strike is a strike even though it is disguised as a 'vacation.' It is an outlaw strike. It isn't a fair strike. This is why it isn't fair."

The miners, through their laborchosen officials, made certain demands for wage increases. The scale committee of miners and operators got together, and both pledged themselves to abide by the federal commission's award. The miners, through representatives of their own selection, agreed to accept the findings of that commission.
Naturally this carried with it the acceptance of the award by the majority of that commission, for this is the land where majorities rule.

The majority report awarded wage increases of from 17 per cent to 25 per cent.
The minority report contained larger increases.
President Wilson, to whom the reports were referred, accepted the majority report. So did the miners' union officials. They signed it.
It then became a contract arrived at by collective bargaining, the very thing labor has so long fought for.

But thousands of miners took a "vacation."

Labor of America cannot succeed along these lines. Neither labor nor business can stand upon broken contracts, nor can either expect the other, or the public, to support the right of collective bargaining if the given word is mere fiction, and the signing of an agreement mere subterfuge to collect some dollars one wouldn't otherwise get.

The right of collective bargaining is the very breath of life to labor unionism.
Without it labor unionism would be nothing.
With it labor commands an equal footing with capital.

By the outlaw strike and the broken word labor places an ever widening gulf between it and public sympathy and public support, without which labor can make little or no headway.

A LITTLE BLARNEY

From blarney, to Blarney Castle, to Blarney stone, are not long steps.

BRINGING UP FATHER.

© 1920 BY INTL. FEATURE SERVICE, INC.

ence. I picked up the phone to his father's house and inquire about him. Perhaps his mother was ill, took off the receiver and then replied to the operator's inquiry hanging it up abruptly.

Why betray our domestic duties to my husband's family?

In my heart I knew I had no reason to worry about Bob. He was staying from me because he was angry. He was jealous and he was making me pay. He would come, of course in an hour or two.

I would try to wait patiently—oh! the hurt of it! I felt as if I was enduring a quite unique hurt—no other woman had ever suffered. But then, there was the Madame H. terfly music to prove the universality of the woman who waits for a man to come. Men like that must Bob more than most men.

Two hours passed—and still no Bob. I wept over the pretty table had set, wept over the wilted salad, the crystal bowl of strawberries, the scouffie which never had had chance to prove itself either a failure or a success.

Salt tears ran down my cheeks and I packed the food into the refrigerator and locked the rear doors of the house.

After I had gone upstairs, it occurred to me that I had forgotten to buy supper. It also occurred to me that that little fool, Ann Lorimer, caused a domestic tangle which must be hard to straighten out.

When we "blarney" we flatter, or coax or wheedle. The meaning might have had its origin in Lord Clancarty's frequent promise to surrender Blarney Castle, and his unending excuses relieving him from the promise.

That brings one down to Blarney Castle, now a ruin in the little village of Blarney, a few miles from Cork. There it has stood since the 15th century. But few know how the Blarney stone originated, to say nothing of how it came to be imposed at the top of the castle over a hundred feet from the ground. Nor does one know how this stone came to be possessed of the power to endow those who kiss it with a gift of "blarney." But it was discovered there and the date 1703 was given upon it.

To kiss the Blarney stone has been the aim of thousands. It became necessary to fasten the stone between two iron girders, so successful were the thousands. Sir Walter Scott didn't think the kissing of this stone was beneath him. The lips of thousands have worn away the graven "1703," and have changed the shape of the stone entirely. Indeed, the Blarney stone, due to the osculatory demonstrations put upon it, is now rapidly going the way of the toe in the statue of St. Peter's in Rome.

However, as millions know, some are endowed with "blarney" who never risked the climb.

YOU TELL HIM

It may not be long until your butcher, or grocer, or some other retail dealer begins singing the song—

"The increased freight rate makes us charge more."

When you complain because he is charging 10 or 20 or more per cent higher price than he did the day before, he'll talk of—

"You know the freight rate has gone up," etc. etc.

Then is your chance to tell him something.

You might, for instance, say—
"Yes, I know all about the freight increase. I know it is less than 2 per cent on the annual production of the farms, factories and mines. I know it is less than 1 per cent of the price of meats as they were before the rate was increased; 5 cents on a pair of shoes, and about 10 cents on a suit of clothes. How come then that you add not only the freight increase but considerable more to your price?"

Yes, you tell him!

Premier Grabski of Poland is advised to change his name to "Letgoski."

MEADOW GROVE SCHOOL.

The Meadow Grove school was under an old oak tree on the edge of Rustling Forest in the Land-You-And-I-Know-About, the seats being moss-covered stones of various sizes, depending on the pupils who were to sit upon them. The desks, too, were of stone but not moss covered, of course.

Mr. Scribble Scratch, the fairy schoolmaster, made his way carefully thence, through brambles and ground-ivy, followed closely by Nancy and

But all the little Meadow Grove people peeping down from branches and from under bushes poked each other in the ribs and whispered, "St! There goes the new master! But who are the others?"

THE BOOK OF ANN.

Bob Shows His Anger By Not Appearing For Dinner.

But my husband was not waiting at home to listen to my explanation, to kiss and to make up. It was a day of sad mischances. I determined to be ruled by them no longer. It was ridiculous to be so unhappy because Bob had not been at the other end of the wire when I tried to phone him that I was undertaking a disagreeable exploit—for the honor of the family! It was absurd to let Ann Lorimer put her little finger in my domestic affairs.

I would have done with mischances. I would be master of my fate. I would model the remainder of the day in a sane and logical manner.

So I set to work in just the ordinary way of the average loving wife, the way which usually leads to success: I prepared an especially dainty dinner for my loving husband. I spread the table with my finest linen and upon it I arranged the Copenhagen-on china which Bob approves so highly.

Then I put on a brand new frock which Bob had never seen, a becoming girlish thing of pale pink georgette, with a drapery of cream-colored chiffon cut like an apron, and liberally frilled, and tied with a huge soft bow just below my shoulder blades.

A wonderful white "cover-all" protected my dainty dress while I set in a row on the kitchen table all of the ingredients for Bob's favorite dish—a soufflé. When I heard Bob's car on the drive I would stir all the things together and pop the dish into the oven. Then I would fling off my white apron, rush to the edge of the garden and greet my man with a perfectly grand hug.

In my heart I believed that nothing in the world was important enough to come between me and my husband. I suppose that is trust of a supreme kind, the kind all men desire and few know what to do with when they get it.

When the preparations for the scouffie were completed I felt almost gay. Moreover the blue china, pink silk, and cream-colored chiffon made a French color combination which Bob would enjoy—I decided as I busied myself in my dining-room.

Bob was five minutes late, I noticed as I slipped my glass baking dish from its silver holder and set it ready for the scouffie mixture. But—no matter. The odor of white lilacs intrigued me. I would have time to deck my table with them and as I gathered them I would plan just how to explain that unfortunate scene in the park.

Before I had anchored the unruly lilac heads so that they would not drip upon my table cloth it was 15 minutes after the dinner hour. "No matter," I repeated, although it was not often Bob kept our dinner waiting. I ran upstairs, plinned back a straggling tress, powdered my nose, and rubbed a wrinkle from between my eyebrows. Downstairs, once more, I relaxed—quite scientifically—while I waited.

Thirty minutes after dinner hour—and still no Bob! Perhaps an accident had happened to him. When I had last seen him, his car was leaping uphill in bounds, it seemed to my excited imagination.

Forty-five minutes after the dinner hour—and my husband had not phoned to me! That was a new experi-

CAMPAIGN SONGS OF LONG AGO

No. 4.—George Washington.

The campaign songs that helped make George Washington president were serious and dignified. They were about what one would expect from the days of powdered wigs, cavaliers, lace-cuffed gentlemen and minuets.

Here is the song that did most to stir up enthusiasm for Washington: Should the tempest of war overshadow our land,
Its bolts could ne'er rend Freedom's temple asunder;
For, unmoved at its portals, would Washington stand,
And repulse with his breast the assaults of the thunder.
His sword from the scabbard would leap,
And conduct with its point every flash to the deep!
For ne'er shall the sons of Columbia be slaves,
While the earth bears a plant, or the sea rolls a wave

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head, no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

Mendota Young Man Killed in Accident

"SAVED ME FROM BEING CRIPPLED"

Mrs. Taylor Says Tanlac Has Completely Relieved Her of Rheumatism.

"I was almost helpless from rheumatism and I believe Tanlac has saved me for being a cripple for the rest of my life," declared Mrs. Ida Taylor, of 906 West Locust street, Bloomington, Ill.

"For five years I suffered terrible from stomach trouble and rheumatism that I had no appetite, because nauseated and felt stuffed up after meals. The rheumatism in my right side made life a torture and I never knew what it was to be free of pain. My right leg was swollen to almost twice its natural size and was so sore I couldn't bear the weight of my hands on it. The muscles were knotted and drawn up so bad I was afraid I was going to be a cripple the rest of my life, and my arm and shoulder were so sore and stiff I could scarcely use them. My kidneys got in bad shape and I suffered terribly with pain in my back. I was nervous and sleepless at night.

"I met a lady who told me about Tanlac and recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle, and before I had finished half of it my appetite picked right up and the rheumatism got easier. I kept on taking Tanlac until every trace of the rheumatism is gone, my kidneys and stomach never bother me any more, I can eat anything I want and I sleep like a child every night."

Tanlac is sold in Dixon by the Public Drug & Book Co. and by the leading druggists in every town.

CENTENARIAN TAKES INTEREST IN VIEWS OF RECENT REUNION

Mrs. Charlotte Whipperman Shows Pictures Taken on 102 Birthday.

(CONTRIBUTED.)
The oldest resident of this vicinity, and probably of Illinois, is Mrs. Charlotte Whipperman, 1122 Walnut avenue, Dixon.
A few days ago friends called at the home where she and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Whipperman, have lived for twenty-seven years, and showed them the pictures which were taken at her birthday party on August 25th, when she was 102 years old. Mrs. Whipperman can hear as well as ever, and is just as quick-witted, but her eyesight has failed somewhat. Her daughter explained to her the little details of the pictures which she might miss, and Grandmother laughed heartily as she looked at the familiar scenes. Most of all she enjoyed the picture of the garden where she worked since she was one hundred years old. She still wants to work, and wished she could dig potatoes this summer. She wants to walk but cannot since her fall last October.
Mrs. Whipperman was born in Hanover, Germany, August 25, 1818. Her parents, David and Louise Long, never came to America. Charlotte Long married Augustus Whipperman there when in her 29th year, and in 1856, they crossed the ocean, settling in Somerset County, Pennsylvania. Five children were born to them. Augustus was killed in Somerset County in a sugar camp when a smokestack slipped while it was being put up. Two other sons, Fred and Charles, live in Dixon, and she has two daughters, Mrs. Minnie Hoover, of Franklin Grove, and Miss Elizabeth Whipperman, with whom she resides.
Mrs. Whipperman moved to Dixon with her family in 1888. Mr. Whipperman died in February, 1861. Grandmother Whipperman has 64 living descendants—four children, 16 grandchildren, 39 great grandchildren, and 5 great, great grandchildren.
At her birthday party, gentle hands carried Mrs. Whipperman in her rocker, out onto the front lawn in the shade of a great tree, and first of all they took pictures of her and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth. Then all present at the time, gathered about them for a group. Later a picture was taken of the house with its two homekeepers on the front porch, and another of the rear and garden.
Grandmother Whipperman still enjoys life, and neither her family nor friends are ready to give her up. She talks interestingly in either German or English. She eats well, and has always been careful not to overeat. She sleeps well, and had an unusually good rest the night after her last party. She has always been active, physically, mentally, spiritually. She is optimistic. Perhaps these things are the secret of her long life.
Mrs. Sam Watson was entertained at the home of Mrs. Jos. P. Plummer this afternoon with bridge.
Robert Schulz of Franklin Grove was in Dixon Saturday.

RHEUMATISM A Remarkable Home Treatment Given By One Who Had It

In the Spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with rheumatism, some of them 70 to 80 years old, and results were the same as in my own case.
I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-sought-for means of getting rid of your rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

Tire Mileage Increased and Cost Reduced—for Small Cars

You can buy Goodyear Tires today at prices which are no higher than they were ten years ago.

And from these tires you can now obtain more actual mileage due to advancements made by Goodyear in their construction since 1910.

The present cost of Goodyear mileage therefore is decidedly less and this fact applies to all the line, including the 30x3, 30x3 1/2 and 31x4-inch size Goodyear Tires built especially for small cars.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires—get exceptional mileage at very low cost.

30 x 3 1/2 Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50
30 x 3 1/2 Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3 1/2 size $4.50 in waterproof bag.

Sixteenth Attempt for a Reconciliation

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Sept. 8.—To effect their sixteenth reconciliation, Judge Samuel H. Trude advised John and Frances Ebron to both speak at the same time and walk out of the court room arm in arm, and continued their case for a week to test results.
Judge Trude had advised Ebron to take his wife for an outing over Labor Day, but he reported to the judge today his wife wouldn't even speak to him when they left the court.
"It was up to him to speak first," said Mrs. Ebron. They left the court room arm in arm.

KEEP YOUNG

People with bad backs and weak kidneys are apt to feel old at sixty. Many old folks say Doan's Kidney Pills help them keep young. Here's a Dixon case:
Mrs. E. Bott, 811 College Ave., says "My advanced age probably had as much to do with my kidneys being disordered as anything else. I had kidney trouble a long time before I knew it. The chief symptoms were backache and severe pains across my kidneys. It was often very hard for me to get up or down. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Prescott & Schildberg's Drug Store and one box rid me of the backache and built up my whole system."
OVER EIGHT YEARS LATER, Mrs. Bott said: "Since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills, they have always proven beneficial when I have had need to use them. I am glad to again endorse Doan's."
Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Bott had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

This section certainly owes a lot to the automobile

LOOK at it just from the business standpoint, compared with, say, ten years ago—even five.

Everything speeded up—made easier. Nearly every business man depending on the automobile to transport himself and his products.

That is one reason, perhaps, why more attention is being paid to tires—why tire costs are being figured closer and people are beginning to look for better tires.

We believe that people are entitled to better tires—the best they can get.

Not only the man with the big car, but the man with the small car, and the medium sized car.

We represent U.S. Tires for that reason—because their policy is the same as ours—every tire as good as you can get it, regardless of the size of the car it is to go on.

It was that policy which led to the introduction of the straight side automobile tire, the pneumatic truck tire.

And you can't beat it.

U. S. Tires are guaranteed for life, with no limitation of mileage.

It will pay you to talk to us about tires, if you are looking at them from a business standpoint.

Government Exhibits

Austrian Paper Suits

Washington, Sept. 7.—Paper clothing and other articles made from paper in Austria factories were placed on exhibition today by the Department of Commerce. Later the exhibit will be offered to clothing and other interested manufacturers.

The exhibit includes workmen's suits, a table cover, collars and cuffs, a laundry bag and a wall decoration.

One paper suit is quoted at 33 crowns or about 15 cents in United States currency, while another, made of 40 per cent paper, sells at about $2.65 in American money.

According to officials of the department the garments are washable.

Gardiner Escapes

Mexicans, Report

Mexico City, Sept. 7.—W. A. Gardiner, a citizen of the United States who was captured by Pedro Zamora, the Jalisco bandit on Aug. 20 at Cuale has escaped, according to official advisers.

General Enrique Estrada, reported last evening to the war department that he had been advised by the commander at Autlan, that an American, MacSwiney, had arrived at Autlan and asked foran escort to bring Gardiner from a ranch some distance from town.

It was stated that Gardiner took refuge at this ranch following his escape from the bandits during the fight at Rancho Divisadero more than a week ago. An escort was sent out for Gardiner. Nothing is known as to the whereabouts of Bertie G. Johnson, a British subject, who was a fellow captive of Gardiner.

TEST TRANSPORTATION ACT

Washington, Sept. 7.—Validity of transportation act provisions giving the Interstate Commerce Commission instead of state authorities supervision over the issuance of railroad securities is to be tested in the courts. The commission was so informed today when Robert J. Cary, counsel for the New York Central, announced that an agreement had been made for a test suit.

FULL TEACHERS' STAFF

Chicago, Sept. 7.—A full complement of teachers for Chicago's four hundred thousand school children was announced with the opening of school today by Supt. of Schools Peter Mortenson. He said a recent salary increase had filled the teaching shortage.

Chief J. D. Van Bibber made a business trip to LaSalle and Peru, Sunday.

NO PLACE FOR HIM

Flint, Mich., Sept. 7.—Asserting that he was not accustomed to political ways, means and methods and had neither the time nor the money to make a campaign, Lieutenant Colonel Gay M. Wilson, of Flint, today formally notified the Secretary of State of his withdrawal as Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor of Michigan.

MISSISSAUGA GRACE AND MABEL FULLER

daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fuller and Ed Foss returned to Chicago today after spending a month's vacation at the Fuller home.

MASSACHUSETTS VOTES

Boston, Sept. 7.—Massachusetts balloted today to select the state and congressional tickets that will be voted on at the November election. It was the first state primary in which women participated and they had registered in the approximate proportion of one woman to every four men.

WHY CHANGE?

TO THE VOTERS OF LEE COUNTY:

If you have a faithful and experienced employee in your store, bank or factory or on your farm, who has given you satisfactory service for several years, would you discharge him simply because another wants his job, especially so when you can re-hire the experienced man at the same salary you would have to pay an inexperienced man?

Think It Over and Vote for SAMUEL J. WHETSTON FOR CORONER. SQUARE — SUCCESSFUL — EXPERIENCED. WHY CHANGE? Primary September 15

Everywhere

All over the country—from the crowded metropolitan centers to the most remote and distant areas—the Borden Service distributes its pure milk products. The steady growth of this organization from its earliest beginnings, 63 years ago, proves the confidence of the public in its standards of purity, quality and wholesomeness. These standards have formed the basis for all later sanitary legislation and regulation. There is a Borden Milk Product for every need—dependable today as tomorrow. The Borden Company. Borden Building. New York

EXPERIENCE NECESSARY

EDWARD E. WINGERT

Republican Candidate for States Attorney, at Primary September 15.

The State's Attorney is the legal protector of the people and their property, and their efficient defense was never more needed than now in this age of unrest, when grave crimes are increasing rapidly.

He is also the attorney for the County, a corporation of nearly 30,000 people, in its complex business affairs.

Whatever else the State's Attorney may be HE MUST BE A TRIAL LAWYER of demonstrated capacity. This capacity can only be shown by years of experience. The office, paying $2900 a year should be no field for experiment.

I have, in 31 years at the bar, tried many hundreds of cases, and in all the counties of the Circuit. This experience has not been limited to one sort, but has covered all kinds, criminal as well as civil. It is conceded that I can try suits successfully and without aid, and if elected I agree to ask no help from the County Board.

Where consulted in advance no client has ever lost money by relying on my advice.

I have never asked for or held any elective office, and do not believe that holding many offices justifies the holder to have others. I want this for one term only, and then another may have a chance.

Both men and women may vote at this primary and the support of all will be appreciated.
